THE MARIE TREMAINE MEDAL
OF THE BIBLIOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY OF CANADA

Terms of Award

The medal shall be known as the Marie Tremaine Medal of the Bibliographical Society of Canada. It shall be a gold medal.

It shall be awarded biennially, beginning in 1970, preferably to a member of the Bibliographical Society of Canada or to a citizen of Canada, for outstanding service to Canadian bibliography and for distinguished publication in either English or French in that field.

Nominations for the award shall be communicated to any member of the Tremaine Medal Committee not later than 31 December of the year preceding the award, and must be supported by a biographical note, a list of principal publications, and other relevant information concerning each nominee. Nominations may also be advanced by members of the Committee.

The Tremaine Medal Committee shall consist of three members of the Council of the Society, appointed by the president. The term of office is three years, one member retiring in rotation and another being appointed to replace him each year. The members of the Committee shall annually appoint one of their number as chairman.

The Committee shall report its decision to the Council of the Society before the Council's spring meeting in the year of the award. If the Committee's choice is confirmed by the Council, the medal shall be presented at the Annual Meeting that year.

Members of the Council of the Society are not eligible for the award while they are in office.

The terms of this award shall be published from time to time in the Papers of the Society, or be otherwise communicated to the Society's members.

Photographs of the Marie Tremaine Medal appear on the next two pages.
