George Stewart, Jr.: A Bibliography

George Stewart, Jr.'s bibliography indicates the extent of his work for Canadian literature, and his literary interests as a man of letters. In addition to his published works, the bibliography contains a list of his lectures, the journals he published, and the newspapers with which he was associated. Within each section items are organized chronologically. Letters found to date have been included, but there are many more to be discovered. Eulogies, minor notices, and reviews of Stewart's works have been omitted.

All the items in the bibliography have been verified. I am indebted for assistance in its preparation to the librarians and archivists of the Public Archives of Canada; the Archives of Ontario; the Metropolitan Toronto Reference Library; the Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library, University of Toronto; the Library of the Quebec National Assembly; the Literary and Historical Society of Quebec Library; the Harriet Irving Library, University of New Brunswick; the Ralph Pickard Bell Library, Mount Allison; and the New Brunswick Museum in Saint John. I would like particularly to thank Mrs. Apollonia Steele and the staff of Special Collections and Inter-Library Loans in the MacKimmie Library, University of Calgary.
