In Memoriam

Our society has lost one of its most faithful members when Danilo Aguzzi Barbagli died on August 21, 1995.

Born in Arezzo, he earned his "dottorato in lettere" at the University of Florence and his Ph.D. in Comparative Literature at Columbia University. He achieved international recognition as a Renaissance scholar. Noteworthy is his critical edition of Della poetica by Francesco Patrizi, published in three volumes by the Istituto Nazionale di Studi sul Rinascimento of Florence in 1969, 1970, and 1971. He taught at the University of Chicago, Tulane University and for twenty three years at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver. He was one of the founders of our society and helped draft its constitution in 1971. He served as first vice-president from 1972 to 1974.
