In Memoriam

We learned with deep regret of the death, in August, of Paula Neuss of Birkbeck College, London. Paula was one of the first early drama scholars to come from the United Kingdom to study in Toronto. She was a member of the first medieval drama seminar given at the University of Toronto by Professor John Leyerle in 1964. She was a founding member of the Poculi Ludique Societas. Her contributions to the field — ranging from her edition of the Cornish plays to productions, to reviews in the TLS — established her as a leader amongst us. She will be missed.
