A FINDING-LIST OF RENAISSANCE LEGAL WORKS TO 1700

by R.J. Schoeck, Natalie Z. Davis, and J.K. McConica, with the assistance of William Dean and others.

Part Two: Section III (Law Common)
A. The Common Law of England

Additional Location Symbols used in Section III A

Addison    Addison Collection, Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario
DL         Douglas Library, Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario
QLL        Queen's University Law Library, Kingston, Ontario
SUNY B/L   State University of New York at Buffalo, Law School, Buffalo, New York
UNB         University of New Brunswick, Fredericton, N.B.
UWO         University of Western Ontario, London, Ontario

For other location symbols see Vol. IV, No. 1, page 5

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Library of the University of Toronto has just acquired an important collection of LEGAL LITERATURE, numbering some 480 volumes. The collection is of Italian provenance, with special strength in civil and canon law as well as church history.
The volumes range from the 16th to the 19th centuries, with a major concentration in 18th century publication from Italy, and there are some 70 items published before 1600. A fuller description will have to await the arrival and sorting of the collection.